Topical Lesson: When Tragedy Happens

Hey parents!

Tragedy and loss are heartbreaking and confusing. We don't fully understand why horrible things take place in our world, and we want God to make things right. When our world is dark and filled with grief and sin, we can find comfort knowing that God is near. Psalm 46:1 reminds us that, at all times, we can count on God as our refuge, strength, and help. This week in class, we shared this hope with your children. We encourage you to work through this take-home paper with your child, and then save it for a time when tragedy is close to home. Tragedy is painful; may we find comfort in our loving God who is always with us.

Take the Family Challenge

Read Psalm 46 as a family. Talk to your children about words that we can think about when bad things happen. Write the words down on a piece of paper and include the reference 'Psalm 46'. When finished, put it in an envelope and tuck it away in a safe place. During a hard time, open the envelope and review the Scripture passage and the words to help your children focus on God and find comfort in Him.
